PRIVACY AGREEMENT

Rack-N-Horns extends this invitation to attend a hunt at its ranch. Before accepting this invitation, it is important you understand our policy against posting photos or details of the event on social media. We adopted this policy because we cannot include all our valued clients on a hunt, and those who have not been invited on this occasion may feel slighted by public discussion of the event through postings on Twitter, Facebook, or other social media. The ranch is also private property, and we want to protect our seclusion.

Please sign below to acknowledge your agreement not to distribute electronically or otherwise post on social media any photos, details, or account of the hunt with Rack-N-Horns.
